Weekly Newsletter Friday 3rd July 2026

Dear families,

It's been a busy and exciting week here at Grange! On Tuesday, we had our transition day, where the children got to meet their new classes and teachers. New teachers for us next year are: Miss Taylor, Year 5 Teal Teacher; Miss Ochoa, Nest Teacher; and Miss Evans, Year 3 Kingfisher Teacher. We're delighted to have them on board, and to welcome BACK Miss Evans, who taught here a few years ago.

We've also had (most of) our Sports Days, rearranged and delivered in school, which the children have loved, and lots of trips! It's a busy time, and we only have 2 weeks left! (eek)

Over the next fortnight, please be aware of the following:

- The builders have started renovations for our SRP, The Nest, so please take care!
- If there is a heatwave next week, we will be enacting our (slightly revised) hot weather plan like last week (look out for more information on that if needed)
- Due to unforeseen circumstances, the Year 6 Production of Peter Pan has a couple of changes; first an earlier start time of 5:30pm for evening performances, and secondly in the inclusion of Year 5 choir only

I would also like to formally thank and welcome our two new parent Governors for the school, Alfredo Yepes and Sarah Welsher. We're looking forward to having you on board!

Have a lovely weekend, Mr Maloy

Design a Black History Month poster for Ealing!

Schools are invited to take part in a drawing competition based on the theme: “Honouring Our Communities”

This year’s Black History Month theme, “Honouring Our Communities”, invites us to look more closely at something we often take for granted, the communities that shape, support and sustain us.

As part of this year’s celebrations, we are inviting Ealing school pupils from reception and Key Stages 1, 2 and 3 to participate in a poster campaign inspired by this important theme.

Pupils are invited to create a drawing or poster reflecting both the theme “Honouring Our Communities” and Black History Month. Artwork should be completed on A4 paper.

Competition entry guidelines

Grange will hold a competition, as we can only send this many winners:

- Reception and Key Stage 1 –a maximum of one drawing or poster per year group (3 in total)
- Key Stage 2 –a maximum of one drawing or poster per year group (4 in total)

Competition requirements

Schools must obtain permission from parents that their child's work can be shared and published.

Each entry must clearly display:

- the pupil’s name
- school name
- year group
